

Emma Templar

Year of call: 2001

Areas of Practice

Business & Commercial, Employment & Discrimination, Family, Local Authorities & Public Law, Personal Injury, Property, Landlord & Tenant

EDUCATION

University of Hull and Universitaire Robert Schuman Strasbourg (LL.B (Hons) Law & French

PRACTICE PROFILE

Emma is a civil and family practitioner with a general common law background.

Civil

Personal Injury – Emma has particular experience of personal injury law having spent 9 months working at specialist personal injury solicitors prior to commencing pupillage. Her work encompasses a broad spectrum of both Claimant and Defendant work, including employer's liability, occupier's liability, product liability, industrial disease and public liability.

Commercial – Emma has experience of and undertakes a wide range of commercial litigation including consumer credit, supply of goods and services, trusts of land and general contractual disputes.

Landlord & Tenant – Emma undertakes both commercial and residential work including disputes relating to claims of disrepair and possession.

Emma also has experience of Housing Law and Employment Law.

Family

Emma's work encompasses all aspects of family law including Divorce/Ancillary Relief, Children, Domestic Violence and care proceedings.

5 Pump Court | Temple, London | EC4Y 7AP | 020 7353 2532