

Five Pump
Court Chambers

5 Pump Court
Temple, London
EC4Y 7AP, UK

clerks@5pumpcourt.com

Tel: 020 7353 2532

Mark Eldridge

Barrister

Call: 1982

markeldridge@5pumpcourt.com

Please call 020 7353 2532 to instruct

Practice overview

Mark is an extremely experienced and formidable advocate who is used to dealing with cases of the utmost seriousness. Mark is especially good at dealing with difficult cases and obtaining results for clients which might have seemed unachievable at the outset.

Mark, a lawyer with experience in areas outside of crime, principally conducts very serious trials in the Crown Court and in the Court of Appeal. He is extremely knowledgeable about all aspects of criminal law and procedure. He is highly valued by solicitors who appreciate his careful and efficient preparation, clear advice, court presence and dedication.

Mark specialises in cases involving serious violence including attempted murder and serious sexual cases. He is highly intelligent and able to keep an eye on the big picture of a case whilst dealing with the detail. He is a robust and compelling advocate, prosecuting and defending with gravitas and charm.

Crime (prosecution)

Mark is a highly experienced prosecution advocate and is instructed by the Crown in extremely serious cases. He is at the top – Level 4 for the CPS and has prosecuted numerous rapes and other serious sexual offences extensively.

Most of Mark's cases involve serious violence and especially attempted murder as well as the full range of sex offences against adults and children. He has prosecuted the widest range of offences including arson, firearms, drugs, kidnapping, perverting the course of justice, cruelty to children, domestic violence, death by dangerous driving etc. He manages multi-defendant cases and complex cases and makes them simple

Crime (defence)

Mark is instructed in a wide range of cases for the defence in the Crown Court – e.g. arson, sex, smuggling and money laundering. He recognises the devastating effect that conviction would have on the lives of his clients and will fight to get the right result for them in court.

Mark has an eye for detail and is able quickly to identify the key issues and facts required for a successful defence. He is a highly persuasive advocate before juries.

Regulatory

Mark has significant experience in matters involving professional regulation; specialising in those connected to the criminal justice system such as police tribunals.

He has prosecuted extensively for Hampshire Constabulary and has defended in London in police disciplinary matters.

He has defended before the PCC of the General Council of the Bar.

He has been instructed in a Public Enquiry (Parliamentary Boundary Commission).

Education

- University of Lancaster (1975–1978): BA Hons
- City University (1979–1980): Dip in Law
- Inns of Court School of Law (1980–1981): Bar Finals

Memberships

- Grays Inn (Call 1982)
- Inner Temple Ad eundem
- Criminal Bar Association
- Bar European Group

- Western Circuit
- South-Eastern Circuit

Languages

- French (conversational)

Notable Cases

R v X (2023): Prosecuted a case where a man cut his partner's throat with a bread knife. She survived. He was charged with Attempted Murder and had pleaded guilty to Section 18 Wounding with intent to cause Grievous Bodily Harm when the case was listed for trial. He was sentenced to an extended sentence of 15 years imprisonment (11 years custody and 4 years on licence).

R v Henderson Domingo (2022): Successfully prosecuted an armed robber who terrorised supermarket staff with a knife as they were opening up during Covid lockdowns. The defendant was sentenced to 14 years having been found guilty on all counts.

R v Ormes (2021): Secured conviction in an attempted murder case where the defendant stabbed a friend in his flat in the neck and tried to smother him. He had done the same before some years before.

R v Kalengula & Kadima (2015): Successfully prosecuted two defendants who were convicted of attempted murder after an 8-day trial at Wood Green Crown.

R v Webster (2015): Secured conviction against a defendant accused of attempted murder after a 5-day trial at Woolwich Crown Court.

R v Jefferson (2015): Successfully prosecuted a defendant who was accused of attempted murder after a 2-day trial at Southwark Crown Court.