Practice overview

Kemi has two specialist practices. Firstly, she is a very experienced family lawyer with a particular strength in cases relating to children. She acts in complex public and private law cases, and is highly regarded for the depth of her knowledge in the area as well as her thoughtful and empathetic approach towards her clients. Kemi is listed in the Legal 500 2024 as a Leading Junior in Family: Children and Domestic Abuse.

Kemi is also a qualified Arbitrator and Mediator with a growing practice in civil and commercial arbitration. She is particularly well suited to arbitration, having a calm and patient personality combined with a forensic approach to evidence. Having spent many years as a family law specialist, she is used to dealing with people in high pressure situations and understands the stress, disruption and inconvenience which disputes can cause. She works hard to keep this to a minimum.

Children law (public)

Kemi has practiced in all areas of Children Law since 1995 and represents local authorities, guardians and parents. She is regularly instructed in complex public law cases and is particularly experienced in conducting cases involving non-accidental injury, sexual and physical abuse, serious neglect and mental health issues.

Kemi is regularly instructed to represent clients in the Court of Appeal. She has so much expertise and experience in this field that she has been able to take on cases at a very late stage, successfully arguing that an appeal should be allowed in the case of [K and L \(Children: Fairness of Hearing\) \[2023\] EWCA Civ 686](#) despite only being instructed the day beforehand.

Kemi is listed in the Legal 500 as a Leading Junior.

Arbitration

Kemi is a qualified Arbitrator and Mediator specialising in civil and commercial disputes; large or small.

She is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and undertakes both paper arbitrations and hearings in an efficient and effective manner. Kemi adopts a very flexible approach in order to minimise the disruption that disputes can cause to people's lives and livelihood. This includes a swift turnaround of paper arbitrations and out of hours hearings at the convenience of the parties.

Kemi has been appointed to the Dispute Appointment Service of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and recently acted as a member of a Review Panel in respect of the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. Kemi is also a panel member of the London Court of International Arbitration (the 'LCIA').

Kemi has also been confirmed as an arbitrator under the Hunt ADR Low-Cost Arbitration Service, providing businesses with access to cost effective arbitration to resolve business disputes with a value of up to £50,000. This latest initiative from Hunt ADR, the UK's largest arbitration provider by volume, sits alongside its award winning Travel Arbitration Scheme and its ad-hoc and various scheme operations. All arbitrators have undertaken at least ten published arbitration awards. Kemi says of her appointment 'I am extremely honoured to be appointed to such an innovative and progressive panel. Hunt ADR provides a world class arbitration service that meets the growing requirement for an efficient and effective forum for the resolution of commercial disputes.'
